About the Program:

Times are tough and difficult for all sections of society, and we are no exception. Practicing CAs and CA Firms have been facing multiple challenges – right from infrastructural deficiencies to apprehensions about our own responsibility levels in remote audit situations to mindset change requirements. It is time we get an 'out of the box' guidance in de-risking our professional responsibilities as well as in converting threats as opportunities. We are presenting a unique programme that addresses just these mind-disturbing issues by way of a presentation by a speaker of veritable eminence.
